

AFFORDABLE, INCLUSIVE HOUSING FORUM

Thur, Aug 18, 2022

Welcome & Introductions

Lee Thoresen, moderator, DEI Commission (3 min)

Presentation: History of Exclusionary Zoning and Affordable Housing in Golden Valley (20 min)

Suggested strategies to reduce the cost of housing and promote diversity and inclusion

Colette Baumgardner, Barrett Clausen, and Linnea Goderstad, students, Humphrey School of Public Affairs

Presentation: City Goals for Affordable Housing (15 min)

Includes entry level housing; affordable rental apartments for seniors, new immigrants, people with low wage jobs, people with disabilities, etc; workforce housing; and NOAH properties

Cherie Shoquist-Henderson, Golden Valley Housing & Economic Development Manager

Breakout Groups (15 min)

Compile a list of barriers that can prevent the City from meeting its goals in building new affordable housing to present to the group at large.

General Meeting (15 min)

Group reports, followed by a vote on the most detrimental barriers

Presentation: Tools Available to the City (15 min)

Cherie Shoquist-Henderson, Golden Valley Housing & Economic Development Manager

Summary (5 min)

How City goals and tools align with barriers

Lee Thoresen, moderator, DEI Commission

Closing Remarks (2 min)

Thank you to participating groups: DEIC members, Golden Valley Affordable Housing Coalition, PRISM, Jewish Community Action, and all supporting City staff