Where There's a WILL, There's (not always) a WAY

Many articles, lawyers, and estate planning experts tell us repeatedly to "get a WILL done." But one of the most dangerous misunderstandings in estate planning is the belief that all you need is a WILL (not true). Another common myth is that WILLs take care of everything and avoid Probate (they don't).

WILLs have their place in the estate planning toolbox, but they should never be the only tool a family uses to protect their assets or their estate in the event of a death or incapacitation.

You still have to address ALL of your assets. Most people place far too much faith in their traditional WILL—not knowing they are inevitably setting up their heirs for a lengthy and costly Probate procedure.

In this educational workshop, you will gain a basic understanding of WILLs—including what they do and what they don't do. Come and learn valuable information about WILLs, TRUSTs, and Probate avoidance. Don't leave a mess behind! Join us for a relaxed but thorough discussion on these and other estate planning fundamentals.

Presented by Jeff Litfin, Certified Estate Planner, Generations Legal Services.

Should I Stay or Should I Go? Before and After the Funeral

After a loved one dies, it feels like there are a million questions that need to be answered. Understanding what processes take place before and after the funeral, will help you make better plans to ease the burden on your loved ones and give you peace of mind.

There are approximately 65 decisions that need to be made before the funeral. Who is responsible for payment, types of services, who needs to be notified, what does the family need, is the funeral for the person who died or those who are still living? After death, who is responsible for paying the deceased bills and taking care of the deceased possessions? What happens if there is/isn't a Will? How are assets transferred to heirs? Is probate necessary? How long does probate take? Great information that we all need to know for decision we are going to make.

Presented by Jeanne McGill, CSA, SPS & Mary Frances Price, Elder Law Attorney.

Chanhassen Dinner Theatres is thrilled to bring audiences a brand-new Broadway musical that Variety calls, "so full of happiness that you think your heart is about to burst!" Four fabulous fading Broadway stars are in desperate need of a new stage. When they hear that trouble is brewing around a small-town Indiana prom – and the press is involved – they know that it's time to put a spotlight on the issue...and themselves. The town's parents want to keep the dance on the straight and narrow, but when one student just wants to bring her girlfriend to the prom, the entire town has a date with destiny. Now, Broadway's brassiest are coming to join the fight and they're ready to kick-ball-change the world! Tony nominated for Best Musical and winner of Best Original Score, The Prom has winning comedy and song, and a playful book (loosely based on a true story) that will remind you of what Broadway heart and fierceness are all about.
