PERMIT APPLICATION

Tree & Landscape

Tree & Landscape Permits are required for all new construction projects, for projects that increase the building footprint by 100 percent in single-family residential (R1 and R2) zoning districts, and for projects that increase impervious areas by 10 percent in all other zoning districts. Multi-lot or two-phase development projects may require additional permits. Note: It may take up to a minimum of 15 business days to review a complete application.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

DATA PRACTICES ADVISORY
TENNESSEN WARNING – PERMITS AND LICENSES

You are being asked to answer questions and provide information pursuant to a permit or license application process that is required by Minnesota state law or the Golden Valley City Code. The purpose and intended use of the requested data is to verify that you meet the requirements of the state statutes and city code provisions and, if the permit or license is approved, to verify that all required data remains current.

Some of the information you provide on this application is considered private data under the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (the "Act"). This information will be used by the City and its agents involved in the review of this application. You are not required by state law or City Code to answer questions or provide the information requested. However, a refusal to answer questions or provide the information requested will prevent the City from processing the permit or license for which you are applying.

The following data collected, created, or maintained is classified under the Act as public data once a license has been approved (Minn. Stat. § 13.41, subd. 5):

1. Data submitted by applicants (including name, email, telephone numbers, and addresses).
2. Orders for hearing, findings of fact, conclusions of law, and specification of any final disciplinary action.
3. Entire record concerning any disciplinary proceeding.
4. License numbers and status.

The following data collected, created, or maintained is classified under the Act as private or confidential data (Minn. Stat. § 13.41, subd. 2; Minn. Stat. § 13.37, subd. 1):

1. Active investigative data relating to complaints against any license.
2. The identity of complainants who have made reports concerning licenses or applicants which appear in inactive complaint data unless the complainant consents to disclosure.
3. The information related to unsubstantiated complaints when it is not maintained in anticipation of legal action.
4. Inactive investigative data relating to violations of statutes or rules.
5. Record of disciplinary proceedings, except as limited by the provisions above.
6. Trade secrets, as defined under Minnesota law.
7. Sensitive security and safety information.

The City of Golden Valley may make any private or confidential data accessible to an appropriate person or agency if the City determines that failure to make the data accessible is likely to create a clear and present danger to public health or safety. Building plans that contain security information will not be given to the public and will be provided only to the permit applicant or others as authorized by the permit applicant, and to government officials who have a need to review them. Other building plans are available to anyone.

Certification: I have read and certify the information in this application is true and correct. I further understand that the giving of false information in this form and/or the failure to give requested information may be cause for immediate revocation of any and all licenses and/or permits issued hereunder. I understand the above information regarding my rights as a subject of government data and applicant for a license or permit from the City of Golden Valley.

Note: Proper signature is required. If a corporation owns the establishment, an officer of the corporation must sign below; if a partnership, the managing partner; if an individual, the owner.
