WED, JAN 23 Stay At Home

Hear a presentation from a design-build firm called Stay at Home. Stay At Home's mission is to create a safe, beautiful environment for homeowners who wish to stay in their homes as they age. Stay At Home offers a variety of services to improve the functionality of virtually every area of your home, both indoors and outdoors, so you can maintain your independence and enjoy your stay at home. Register by Jan 22.

WED, FEB 20 Yorkville Twins

Twin brothers Joseph and John Gindele grew up on the rough streets of Yorkville, on Manhattan's ethnic Upper East Side, over 60 years ago. This is their story—what the city was like then, how it changed, and how two kids from immigrant parents became accomplished Minnesota schoolteachers with earned doctorate degrees. It's an American tale, full of adventures and laughs, sweet memories, and sad moments. How did their Czech and German parents and seven siblings ever survive living with twins who share special bonds and predictive abilities? Register by Feb 19.

Living Wise And Well FREE

It's a fact—people are living longer and healthier! Join us for this free program that offers monthly information for a happy, healthier you. Refreshments provided by Calvary Center Cooperative. No pre-registration required.

Calvary Center Cooperative Prairie Room
2–3:15 pm

THUR, JAN 3 Foot Care

Dr Tom Silver, foot specialist from the Westwood Foot Clinic in the Golden Valley Town Square, will give a practical presentation focusing on basic foot care for seniors along with prevention and treatment of foot problems. There will also be a question and answer period.

THUR, FEB 7 Eating Well—Healthy Choices To Reduce Inflammation

Inflammation is the body's natural response to injury, infection, or what it sees as a foreign invader. Though acute inflammation is short-lived, chronic inflammation is a continual response of the immune system and can lead to degeneration—aging the body and creating disease conditions. In this class you will learn what lifestyle choices you can make to prevent inflammation and promote good health and a long life. Presented by Lynda Binus Enright, MS, RDN, LD, CLT.

Money Matters FREE

With consumer costs rising, finances and investments are of more interest than ever. Join us as we hear speakers working with finances and investments present information important to today's investor. No pre-registration required.

Brookview Valley Room North

THUR, DEC 20

Elder Financial Abuse Prevention For Seniors And Their Families

Elder financial abuse, also known as financial exploitation, is the illegal or unauthorized use of an older adult's funds or resources for the benefit of someone other than the older adult. This includes fraud, theft, and acts of deception to gain control over a senior's money or property. Come and learn about common types of financial abuse, indicators and signs, and how to report and get help.

THUR, JAN 17

2019 Tax Impacts

Come and hear a discussion of the many 2018 tax law changes. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, the big tax changes enacted in 2017, took effect in 2018, with only a few provisions taking effect in 2019. There were big changes for Minnesota in 2018. Since Minnesota's big budget bill did not get passed, which would have had Minnesota conforming to all the federal changes, Minnesota had to do its tax completely different than in past years. Presented by Andrew Jensen of H&R Block Advisors.

THUR, FEB 21

Investing 105—Market Update 2019

After a review of stock market highlights of the previous 12 months, we'll look at recent news and events and Federal Reserve activities. We'll examine the results of a one year-long net-performance comparison of the S&P-500 index mutual fund with a large cap value fund. We'll review the importance of asset allocation. Finally, we'll look at ways to simplify our portfolios. Presented by Dale Stenseth.

Defensive Driving

Adults age 55+ can get a three-year discount on car insurance premiums and become better drivers by taking a state-approved National Safety Council Defensive Driving course. These classes are taught by professional certified instructors and offered by the Minnesota Safety Council. No tests given, but attendance is required to receive the certificate of completion.

Registration & Certificate of Completion

To guarantee a certificate at class completion, register at least seven days in advance with the MN Safety Council. Make checks payable to "MN Safety Council" and mail to 474 Concordia Ave, St Paul, MN, 55103. Call 651-291-9150 to register with credit card.

Indoor Pickleball

Pickleball is a game played on a badminton or tennis court with the net lowered to 34 inches at the center. It is played with a perforated plastic baseball (similar to a whiffle ball) and wood or composite paddles. It is easy for beginners to learn but can develop into a quick, fast-paced, competitive game for experienced players. This is not a league. Come when you can...just drop in. Equipment available on a limited basis. Gym shoes required.

Davis Community Center Gyms
Sundays from 3–5 pm
$5/at door, or
$40/10-time punch pass

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

READING PARTNERS

Reading Partners is a national non-profit dedicated to closing the achievement gap by helping elementary students from low-income communities boost their reading confidence and competence. This is done by collaborating with Title I schools and community volunteers to increase the amount of time and personnel available during the school day to deliver data-driven, one-on-one tutoring to students in grades K-5. Reading Partners is seeking to recruit volunteers to help students learn skills necessary to become proficient readers. For information, please visit us online at <http://readingpartners.org>, or email volunteerTC@readingpartners.org.

COVENANT RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

Covenant Retirement Communities is actively recruiting volunteers to assist with our SAIDO Learning® memory support program. Volunteers assist with 30-minute session weekly. Free training provided. For more information, please contact Mary Beth Snyder 763-732-1407 or MBSnyder@covenantretirement.org.

Mary Wanderer Trips

Comfortable motor coaches, good food, knowledgeable tour guides, and Mary as our escort! Our trips are planned with you in mind. Trip registrations are taken on a first-come, space-available basis in person, by mail, or online at <https://webtrac.goldenvalleymn.gov>. Use the code number and state your pick-up location and meal choice (if offered) when registering. Pick-up location is at Golden Valley City Hall under the water tower.

Church Basement Ladies In You Smell Barn At Ames Center, Burnsville

Arrive at The Ames Center in Burnsville. Built in 2009, the lobby is two stories tall, all glass, with a sweeping view of Nicollet Commons Park, The Minnesota River Valley, and the Minneapolis Skyline. Have an informal lunch in the second story Atrium area. Menu: Soup and salad bar, turkey breast with gravy, mashed potato, seasonal vegetable, fresh bread and butter, assorted pie, coffee, water, and lemonade. After lunch, take time to enjoy the exhibition in the 2,000-square-foot art gallery. The visual arts center displays a diverse collection of artwork from local emerging and professional artists. Be seated in the Black Box Theater for another Church Basement Ladies performance. You Smell Barn, from the basement to the barn, your beloved Church Basement Ladies are back and getting busy with life outside the kitchen. After the last of the hot dish is served, the coffee pot is emptied, and the Jell-O molds are put away, these steadfast, sturdy women head to their farms, peel off their good girdles, and get on with their daily chores. In between picking eggs, milking cows, and dusting knickknacks, they congregate with some of the other lovable folks who inhabit this rural community: Earl, who delivers the mail up and down Rural Route One; Fergus, the hired man; and Tillie, who chronicles the action for the Fish County Weekly.

Mobsters In Minneapolis

Meet a costumed Mill City Mobster for a riding tour. This fun adventure will reveal that St. Paul wasn't the only city to host the crime and corruption of the gangsters. Yes Minneapolis had them too! Venture through the crime laden city of Minneapolis and explore the not so wholesome people of this city's past. Visit the sites of the 3rd Northwestern Bank hold-up by the Barker/Karpis gang, the site of Babyface Nelson's traffic violation, and the murder site of journalist Walter Liggitt. Your guide, a two-bit gangster hoodlum or one of their gun molls, will show you how the Twin Towns transformed one of the largest areas of crime in the country during the 1920's and 1930's. After dropping off the guide, arrive in Northeast Minneapolis at the cozy Keegan's Irish Pub for a n/a beverage and entree. Keegan's Pub was designed and built by O'Sullivan Interiors in Waterford, Ireland. Irish craftsmen came to Minneapolis to reconstruct the pub in this location. It is authentic and in keeping with the historic preservation district in northeast Minneapolis. The staff invites you to share a bit of Edwardian Dublin with good food in the finest Irish tradition. Lunch Menu (choose entree when registering): 1) Beer Crisped Fish-n-Chips - Batter fried icelandic cod with lemon wedge, homemade tartar sauce, and malt vinegar, Keegan's crispy wedge fries. 2) Half Sandwich - Lean corned beef piled high with swiss cheese and Dijon mustard, and chips. Both served with beverage and cookie.

Hello Dolly At The Orpheum Theatre

The darling of Broadway has returned! With a successful revival lighting up Broadway Hello, Dolly! is heading out on a national tour. With four Tony's under its belt, including Best Revival and Best Actress for Better Midler, Jerry Herman's musical comedy is back where it belongs. With memorable classics such as 'Before the Parade Passes By' and 'Put on Your Sunday Clothes,' Hello, Dolly! is ready to reclaim the hearts of the American people. Based on Thornton Wilder's play The Matchmaker Hello, Dolly! was an instant success when it first debuted in 1964. Winning an unprecedented 10 Tonys at that year's ceremony it was soon adapted for the big screen featuring a cast led by Barbra Streisand and a young Michael Crawford. This 2017 revival is directed by four-time Tony winner Jerry Zaks (Sister Act) who's talent has brought Hello, Dolly! back into the lime light. In 1880's New York a rich and cantankerous widower by the name of Horace Vandergelder is on the lookout for a wife. To help him on his quest he engages the services of professional matchmaker Dolly Gallagher Levi, but little does he know that Dolly has his perfect match in mind from their very first meeting - herself! Now all she has to do is make Horace realize it as well.

42nd Street At The Ordway Theatre

The Ordway Center in St. Paul will present an Ordway Original, 42nd Street. Come and hear the brand-new beat. This classic tale of wide-eyed Peggy Sawyer dreaming of tapping her way to Broadway will knock you off your feet. Reimagined for a 21st century audience, they will feature local talent, masterful dancing, and funk-jazz orchestrations of hit songs like "We're in the Money," "Lullaby of Broadway," and of course, its title track. Come and hear the brand-new beat on 42nd Street!

Community Information

Senior Community Caregiver Services      612-770-7005

Senior Outreach and Caregiver Services provides support to friends, spouses, and other family members who help an older adult remain at home. The staff not only assists these caregivers in connecting with needed services and resources for their loved ones, but gives support to them as well. The licensed social workers can provide consultation, caregiver support groups, family meeting facilitation, and coaching to the caregiver.

Jewish Family and Children's Service of Minneapolis      952-546-0616

JFCS moved from Minnetonka to Golden Valley in February. For more than a century, JFCS has provided programs, services, and support for thousands in the Jewish and broader communities. JFCS provides help in areas including aging services, career services, children and family services, community engagement, and counseling and mental health support. Some programs highlighted for seniors are:

50+ Platinum Program

Adults 50+ living in Hennepin County who want to retool and re-enter the workforce to achieve career success are assisted by the Platinum Program. Assistance includes employment plan development, résumé assistance, coaching in networking, job search, interview skills, and more. Services are offered at no cost to those who meet eligibility requirements. To learn more, call our Career Services intake line at 952-417-2111.

Jacob Garber Transportation

Convenient, reliable transportation for ambulatory adults age 60+ living in our service area. To register to become a rider, call our intake department at 952-546-0616. Rides are available Mon–Fri from 8 am to 3:30 pm. Make reservations at least one business day in advance.

H.O.M.E.      952-746-4046

Household and Outside Maintenance for the Elderly provides affordable services that help seniors continue to live independently in their homes. The core staff, along with skilled workers and volunteers, provides homemaking and home maintenance services for residents age 60+ in Golden Valley. Seniors contribute to the cost of the service based on their monthly income and their ability to pay. H.O.M.E. also accepts some insurance payments, as well as, the Elderly Waiver and the Alternative Care Grant. Services provided are:

- housekeeping
- laundry
- minor maintenance repairs
- snow shoveling
- lawn mowing
- seasonal yard work
- safety device installation
- interior/exterior painting
- window washing

Each year H.O.M.E. receives a growing number of requests for help with leaf raking, window washing, yard clean up, gardening, snow removal, lawn mowing, basement cleaning, and garage sweeping. They rely completely on the generosity of volunteers to fulfill these requests. The volunteer opportunities are flexible and great for individuals as well as groups. Call or email us today at HOME@seniorcommunity.org.

Senior Dining      763-531-1183

Senior Dining provides a delicious noon meal at Crystal Community Center. A donation of $4 is requested at the door, but no one will be denied a meal. Takeout meals are also available.
